

Column Arrangement

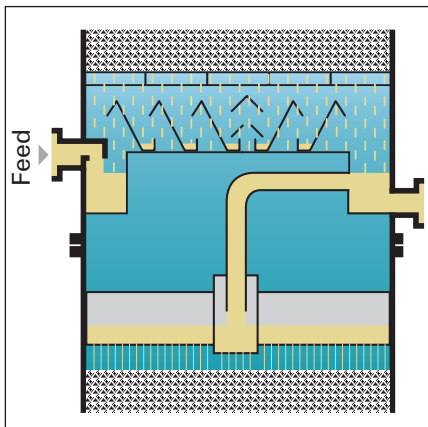

A cross section through the design system

The structural design of a column is illustrated by the following cross-section drawings. They will give you an idea of a sensible configuration of Montz products in a column.

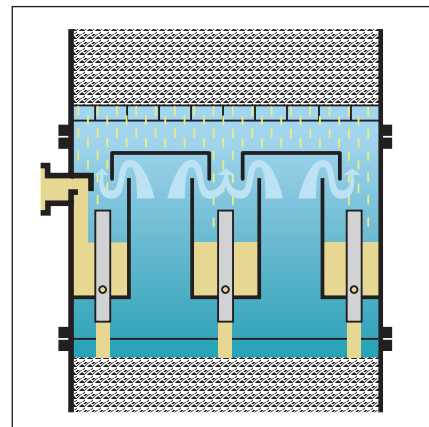

Redistribution section for column diameters < 800 mm

Combination distributor Type KF welded into a column section for intermediate flanging, for diameters < 800 mm

Vapour distribution

